

Meeting Opening Ceremony

“Positive Cub Scout Attitude”

This ceremony is intended to be conducted as an opening ceremony for a Pack Meeting. It highlights the importance of Positive Attitude in achieving success. It uses the examples of some famous Scouts in the history of our Country. This ceremony is intended to be conducted by the Cub Scouts of a single Den.

Cub Scout Leader: There is no limit to the Power of A Positive Scouting Attitude.

Cub Scout 1: One former Scout became a Home Run King
- Henry Aaron

Cub Scout 2: One former Scout became The Secretary of Energy
- Eagle Scout Rick Perry

Cub Scout 3: One former Scout became a self-made billionaire
- Eagle Scout H. Ross Perot

Cub Scout 4: One former Scout became a world famous film maker
- Eagle Scout Steven Spielberg

Cub Scout 5: One former Scout became the founder of the largest retail chain in the world
- Eagle Scout Sam Walton of Wal-Mart

Cub Scout 6: One former Scout became known for his "Dirty Jobs"
- Eagle Scout Mike Rowe

Cub Scout 7: One former Scout became known for his ability to keep cool under pressure
- Astronaut and Eagle Scout Jim Lovell of Apollo 13

Cub Scout 8: One former Scout became the first man to walk on the Moon
- Astronaut and Eagle Scout Neil Armstrong

Cub Scout Leader: One former Scout even became President of the United States
- Eagle Scout Gerald Ford, 38th President

All Cub Scouts: (read together by all Cub Scouts presenting the ceremony)
The one thing that they all had in common
- A Positive Cub Scout Attitude!

Cub Scout Leader: Please join us in showing a Positive Cub Scout Attitude by reciting with us The Scout Law